

Responses to questions from the Tribunal
Réponses aux questions du Tribunal

(a) List of questions which the Tribunal would like to address to parties, transmitted to both parties on 6 December 2004

Question 1:

Under the Guinea-Bissau legal system, can a decision of the Interministerial Commission be subject to judicial review by the domestic court system?

Question 2:

In case the fisheries administration does not agree with a decision rendered by a competent domestic judicial court suspending the effects of a decision taken by the Interministerial Commission, what legal remedy, under the legal system of Guinea-Bissau, can the fisheries administration resort to in order to challenge the court's decision?

Question 3:

What remedies are available to the shipowner whose ship has been forfeited to the State as a result of an administrative decision?

Question 4:

Are all members of the crew free to leave Bissau?